Entirely redesigned and decorated by a renowned interior designer, bright 2 room loft with a chic & cosy atmosphere decorated with an entrance serving a beautiful living room with its fully equipped open kitchen (oven, induction hobs, fridge/freezer, dishwasher), a bedroom with its industrial style glass roof, a bathroom with toilet. Recent renovation, high and beautiful volumes (hsp 3.10m), parquet flooring, cement tiles, double glazing and new equipment complete this little jewel combining the charm of the old and the comfort of the modern. On the 2nd and last floor of a small well-maintained condominium (renovated staircase), with the possibility of fitting out the attic (20 m²), this property is located in a quiet area, close to the Longchamp palace and the zoo, close to shops, public transport and schools.

Les Chutes-Lavie is a district of Marseille that shines through its dynamism. Its multicultural side and its rich history make it the epicentre of Marseille's transformation from a port city to a must-see tourist destination that offers all the advantages of urban life with a relaxed atmosphere. Bordering the five Avenues district, it shares the famous Longchamp Palace and its less famous name park, a privileged place for students and families...
